"A diligent Christian will feel that the true contemplation of the Savior lies in his worldly business, that as Christ is seen in the poor, and in the persecuted, and in children, so is he seen in the employments which he puts upon his chosen. He will see Christ revealed to his soul amid the ordinary actions of the day, as by a sore of Sacrament. Thus he will take his worldly business as a gift from him, and will love it as such." - St. John Newman

Important Words to Know and Understand (Reminder) Characteristics of a Disciple of Jesus Christ: Obedience

The fourth characteristic is that we seek to understand and obey the teaching of Christ as passed on to us through the Apostles and modern-day apostles of the Catholic Church, which are the bishops.

The Church is our Mother and she shares with us the revelation of Jesus. The disciple understands there is not a difference between what Jesus taught and what the Church teaches, just as the head cannot be separated from the body. He or she humbly seeks to learn more about what God has revealed through the Church and live in obedience to it.
